Church Notes

Trunk or Treat Tonight: Carnival, 5:00pm-6:15pm; Trunk or Treat, 6:15pm-7:00pm, in case of rain go to the Fellowship Hall.

Gateway Community Bible Study for Women, Tuesdays, September 10-December 10: A community wide women's bible study hosted by Mount Carmel. Seasoned teacher and speaker Kathy Russell is leading a thought provoking bible study of the Gospel of Mark for women of all ages. To register contact Emily Arnold, emilykarnold@yahoo.com.

Fall BBQ and Stew, November 9, Help Needed: If you are willing to lead a stew pot, provide beans or potatoes, assist with preparation of the meats or donate money for ingredients, contact Dawn Berry, 919-730-6361, dawn.berry@ncdps.gov.

Prison Ministry Pecan Sales: Our pecan fundraiser is the biggest single source of income for paying the Prison Chaplain. We have experienced a reduction of pecan trees due to Hurricane Florence, but we will begin our sales at Mount Carmel on Sunday, November 17 after both services. The price for a one pound bag is $14 and can be paid with cash or check (payable to Dick Richardson). Many thanks!

Christmas Gifts for Inmates: We are collecting bars of soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes and stick deodorant for the inmates this Christmas. Please bring your items to the church by December 7 and place them in the bins in the back of the Fellowship Hall.

Guest Pianist: On November 3, Stanton Lanier, Pianist of Peace, will play at our 11am worship service. Lanier is an award-winning pianist-composer whose melodies are biblically-inspired and created to bring peace, rest, hope and healing to listeners. He will also be performing at three area churches November 1-3. In 2004 Stanton founded Music to Light the World, a non-profit ministry that has donated over 75,000 CDs and MP3 albums to cancer patients and others needing hope and healing. In September, he donated 150 CD's for cancer patients at both Duke and UNC. For more information, contact Jane Cutchin, jane@mcbbc1803.org.
